

“The Impossible Dream”
Text: Daniel 2:1, 25-45

I. The Dream of the Sovereign (v. 1, 31-35)

II. The Defiance of the Subject

Daniel was not defiant in a way that would violate Romans 13:1, which requires Christians to be subject to governing authorities, but he was defiant in his insistence before the greatest leader in the known world that all of the nations of men would fail while the kingdom established by God would stand forever.

III. The Disciples of the Savior. What does God show us about how Christians should live in an unbelieving world?

- A. Our repentance. We need to repent when our thoughts about God are too small (see Daniel's thoughts beginning with verse 20).
- B. Our recognition. We need to be aware of our competing loyalties as we live amidst the cities of men and the City of God.
- C. Our rejoicing. “Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe.” Heb. 12:28.

“The Impossible Dream”
Text: Daniel 2:1, 25-45

I. The Dream of the Sovereign (v. 1, 31-35)

II. The Defiance of the Subject

Daniel was not defiant in a way that would violate Romans 13:1, which requires Christians to be subject to governing authorities, but he was defiant in his insistence before the greatest leader in the known world that all of the nations of men would fail while the kingdom established by God would stand forever.

III. The Disciples of the Savior. What does God show us about how Christians should live in an unbelieving world?

- A. Our repentance. We need to repent when our thoughts about God are too small (see Daniel's thoughts beginning with verse 20).
- B. Our recognition. We need to be aware of our competing loyalties as we live amidst the cities of men and the City of God.
- C. Our rejoicing. “Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe.” Heb. 12:28.